

NCTM secures third merger deal in past two months

NCTM has added a Brussels office as the fast-growing Italian independent completes its third merger in the past two months. The firm has opened its second office outside of Italy with a tie-up with Brussels-based boutique O'Connor and Company. The office will be headed up by the boutique's founding partner Bernard O'Connor, who joins NCTM's equity partnership. The boutique focuses on EU and competition, administrative law and procurement, litigation and disputes, international trade.
